

WPT Heads-Up Hold 'Em

WPT Heads-Up Hold'em features head-to-head play against the dealer and two optional bonus bets.

Players and the dealer each receive two cards. They combine them with five community cards to make their best five-card hand.

If the Players bet pre-flop, they must wager 3x their Ante on the Play. If they bet after the flop, they must wager 2x their ante. If they wait until after the river when all community cards are out they must wager 1x their ante or fold.

Game Description:

Heads-Up Hold'em is a house banked, poker based card game played with a standard 52 card deck of playing cards. The object of the Ante, Odds, and Play wagers are for the player to have a higher ranked poker hand than the dealer. There are also additional optional wagers that are won if the Player's hand achieves one of the predetermined winning events as posted in the pay table.

Ante, Odds and Play Wagers

To play, players place an Ante wager and an Odds wager of equal amounts. Each player and the dealer receive two cards face down.

Aggregate payout for the table is $25,000.

Bonus Jackpot prizes are paid by the casino and are not components of any progressive prize contest. Player wagers do not accrue to any guaranteed player fund. The displayed Bonus Jackpot prize may be modified or discontinued at any time without prior notice.
